VA FORESTRY ASSOC. AWARDS LUNCHEON

County Christmas Tree Farmer, for exceeding her assigned membership quota by 150% T. Rhett Mozingo, Virginia Fibre Corp., Amherst, was given special recognition as Chairman of the Membership Committee.

Three recipients of the Association's new Logger Merit Award were announced: Aubrey L. Clary of Gasburg; John W. Davis of Dillwyn and S. R. Jones, Jr. of Gasburg. Designed to recognize loggers for outstanding performance in harvesting and logging practices, the Logger Merit Award is the first program of its kind in Virginia. The first 15 winners were announced in October 1977. Winners received a framed Certificate of Award, a specially designed set of Decals for use on their trucks and equipment and a one-year gift membership in Virginia Forestry Association.

Highlighting the Awards Luncheon was the naming of Virginia's Outstanding Tree Farmer of 1978, William J. Dann, Jr., owner of Virginia Tree Farm No. 233 in Lancaster County. "The property, known as Ball's Quarter, includes just over 1250 acres of timberland and some marsh land," commented Forrest W. Patton who accepted the award for Dann."The tract, purchased in 1938, had been cut through, burned and mistreated. Dann purchased the land to keep it in the family. In 1953, I made an inspection of the property and drew up a management plan calling for the harvesting of 25-75 acre blocks until the entire property had been reforested. In 1956 the Chesapeake Corp. of Virginia gave Dann assistance with his land through the Cooperative Forest Management program, and he has followed our recommendations as well as those from state and federal agencies. He has given consideration to wildlife, fire control, road access, soil stabilization and a variety of species. His property is being properly handled for optimum forest management." Dann, a resident of St. Michaels, MD, was unable to attend due to ill health. Patton accepted a new McCulloch chainsaw presented to Dann, compliments of the Ronconi Equipment Co. in Springfield, Md.

The Virginia Forestry Association is a non-profit, non-governmental association of forest landowners, industries, business and conservation minded individuals who have joined together to promote the development and improvement of forest resources in Virginia. Organized in 1943, it maintains offices at One N. Fifth St., Richmond.

Delay can be deadly. The average heart attack victim waits three hours before seeking help — and most victims who die, die before they get to the hospital. Know the warning signals of heart attack. Ask your Heart Association.

For a heart-healthy diet, eat foods low in saturated fat and cholesterol. This means lesser meats and whole milk products, and more fish, poultry and fresh vegetables. Ask your local Heart Association for more information.

Heart disease causes premature death and disability. Your Heart Campaign dollars support research which will help stop unnecessary death and suffering. Be generous when a Heart volunteer knocks at your door.

For an easy way to give up the excess fat in your diet, and follow a healthier meal plan, the American Heart Association Cookbook offers more than 500 delicious low-fat, low-cholesterol recipes. For more diet information, ask your local Heart Association.

Heart and blood vessel diseases kill nearly a million Americans a year. About a fourth of them are under 65. Research — supported by Heart Campaign dollars — is making important strides against these killer diseases. Something can be done to prevent premature death from heart disease, and the Heart Association is doing it. Won't you help?

The Pastor Speaks

"THE DEVIL MADE ME DO IT"

Several years ago, Flip Wilson popularized the phrase, "The Devil Made Me Do It" on his night-time TV show. Somehow this attitude has seeped into the consciousness of man today until we are not willing to take the responsibility for anything we do wrong! Prisoners are in prison because society made them commit the crime. Youth rebel against parents and school authority because of "TV brainwashing" so argues a defense attorney in Florida. Employees embezzle funds, shoplift from employers, or beat the timeclock because of discrimination in salary, promotions, or poor working conditions. The list could go on and on. Get the point! We have been tricked said Jesus, "when he (devil) speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own, for he is a liar, and the father of it." (John 8:44) The devil does not mind it at all if we say that "the devil made me do it"!, for the devil knows that the only way you and I can ever stand forgiven before Holy God is to admit our own responsibility for our own sins, mistakes, and shortcomings. The devil knows that the only cure for sin is found in God's Holy Word, the Bible. "If we say that we have fellowship with Him (God), and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth. But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (I John 1:6-9) So instead of saying, "the devil made me do it" when we sin, let's immediately turn to God and admit our sin, confess our sin, ask for forgiveness of that sin, and ask God for His power to help us not commit that same sin again.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

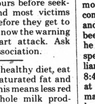
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

NO ABSENT GOD

Lesson for February 5, 1978

Background Scripture: Psalms 78; 105; 136.
Devotional Reading: Psalms 77:11-20.



Rev. Althouse

One of the most unique aspects of the religion of Israel was the conviction that God is present and active in human affairs, both individual and collective in many religions and philosophies. God is seen as a kind of Absentee Landlord who owns the premises but rarely pays them a visit. It is the relentless and unapproachability of God that dominates much religious thinking today. Appalled by those who seem to create God in man's image, many people shudder at any concept of God which sees him acting in a human manner.

A God of deeds

Yet, it does not follow that, if God is not human in his nature, he is necessarily "out of this world" either. If it is immature to think of God as "the Big Man up in the sky," that does not mean that God cannot act within the world he created. There is nothing simplistic in believing that God is at work in the affairs of his creation and his creatures.

This is the way that the people of Israel usually thought of him: as the Divine Being Who-Has-Done-Something. If you work your way through the Old Testament, you will find few, if any, abstract ideas about God. You will find few speculations about God's nature and being. What you will find in great abundance are accounts of what God has done in his world. Thus, the writers of the Old Testament, instead of trying to tell people what God is like, concentrate on telling them what God has done and is doing.

As we saw last week, sometimes the Psalmist saw God revealed in the awesomeness of nature or in the holiness of God's moral order. But more often he found him in acts which could be pinpointed in history.

O give thanks to the Lord, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples! Sing to him, sing praises to him, tell of his wonderful works!

The people of Israel regarded their history as sacred history because they could see the hand of God moving within it. Things didn't "just happen"—God made them happen!

A God who leads

Furthermore, not only did God act in history, but he also revealed himself to them as a Presence. When they spoke of the "covenant," they were speaking of the relationship between God and his people. Thus Israel felt and saw his presence in their national affairs. They saw him not as a Celestial Cheerleader urging them on from afar, but as The Leader in their midst: "So he led forth his people with joy, his chosen ones with singing." (Psalms 105:43). Thus, when the Psalmist proclaimed, "Praise the Lord!" he was celebrating not an abstract idea, not a theological speculation nor a philosophic ideal, but a God who was known because of a Presence which could not be denied.

HIGHWAY SAFETY QUIZ

Are there any other times in addition to nighttime when motorists should turn on their headlights?

According to the Code of Virginia a driver must use his headlights between a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise. Also, headlights are essential when, due to insufficient light, fog, rain, smoke or other unfavorable atmospheric conditions, pedestrians or vehicles on the highway are not clearly visible at a distance of 500 feet. Headlights on motorcycles should be bright enough to illuminate a person or object at a distance of 200 feet, and bicyclists traveling between sunset and sunrise must use a headlight visible from at least 500 feet.
